

VIRGIN ISLANDS NATIONAL PARK

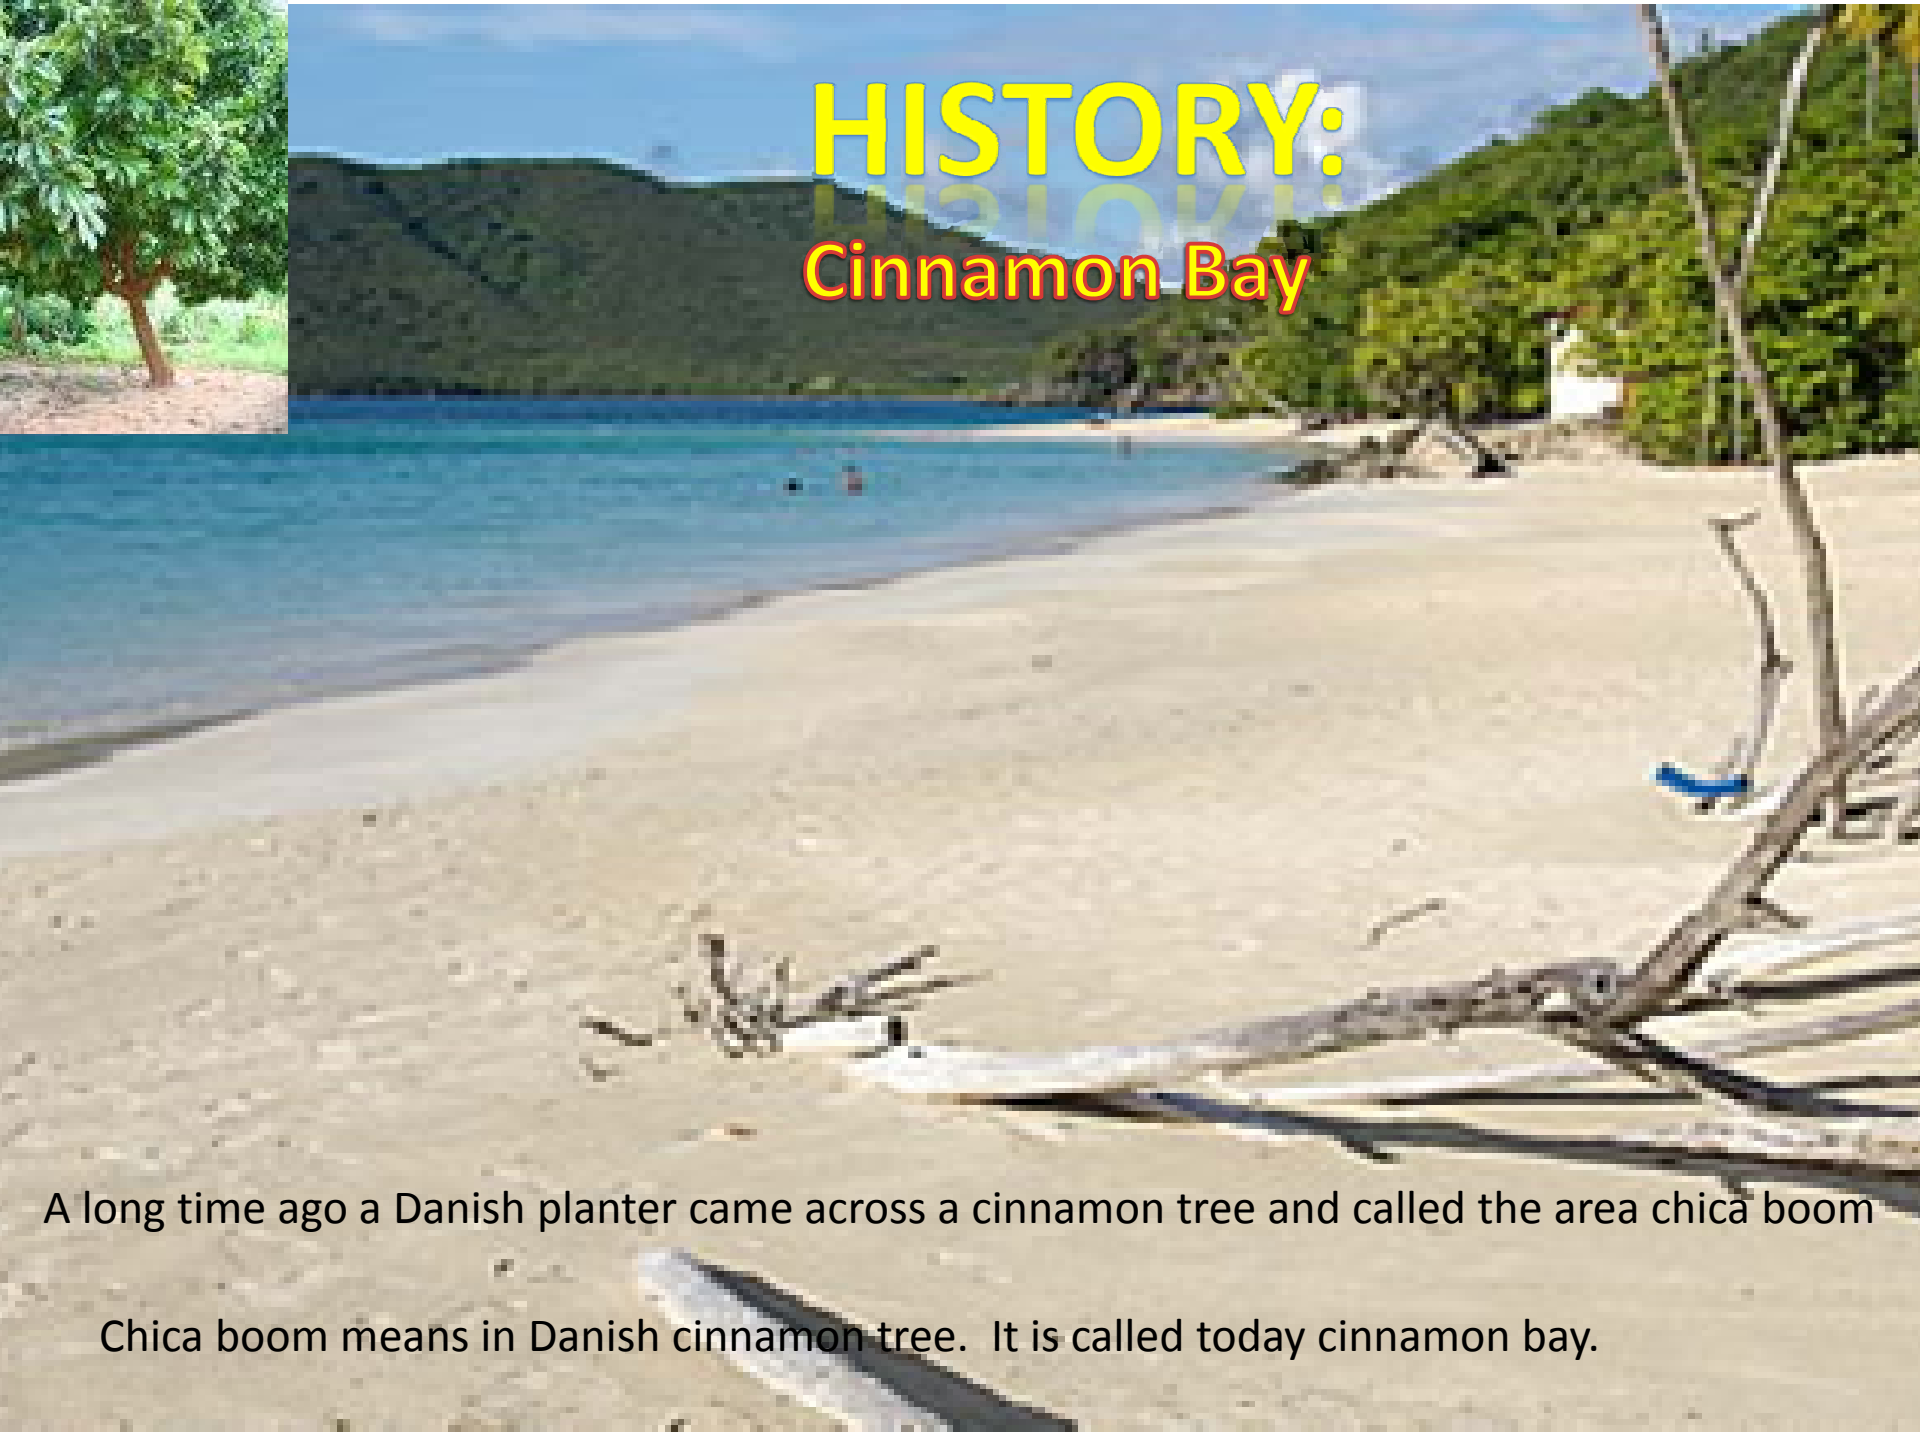

AN ISLAND FULL OF EXCITING
HISTORY

BY MARIANNE HANSALIK

HISTORY:

Cinnamon Bay

A long time ago a Danish planter came across a cinnamon tree and called the area chica boom

Chica boom means in Danish cinnamon tree. It is called today cinnamon bay.

The Annaberg sugar mill was named after the owners daughter who was named Anna. Today there is a tour of the whole plantation

HISTORY:
ANNABERG SUGAR MILL

HISTORY:

Jumbie Bay

Jumbie bay is the only island on St. John that has a African name. A jumbie is a evil being that can't be seen. It comes from the word Djombie.

All these are ENDANGERED!!

Leather back turtle

Green sea turtle

Hawksbill sea turtle

Poaching is when people take turtles and kill them and sell them for their shells.

Endangered

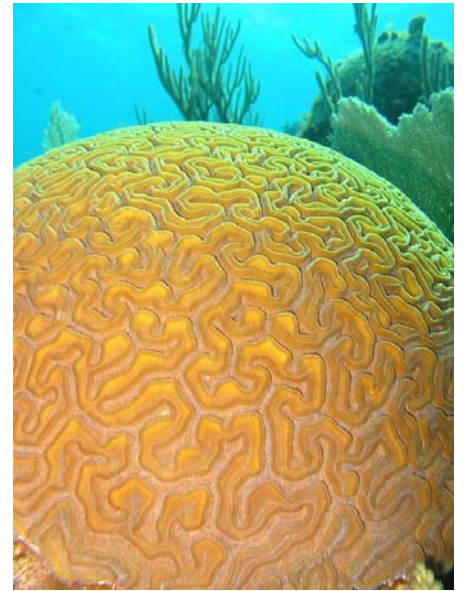

The coral reefs are coming extinct because boats anchors are coming down on it and killing it and lots of animals homes .

Fire Coral

PLANTS

Staghorn Coral

Brain Coral

Elkhorn Coral

ANIMALs

Fish

Grouper Fish

Yellow Tail Snappers

Grunt Fish

ONLY MAMMAL

Fish Eating Bat

The End

What was discovered by a Danish Planter?

- A. Jumbie Bay
- B. Cinnamon Bay
- C. Coral Bay
- D. Annaberg Sugar mill

What type of plant is becoming extinct?

- A. Seaweed
- B. Mahogany
- C. Coral
- D. Fire Bush

What Type of Animal is almost extinct?

- A. Spiny Lobster
- B. Fish Eating Bats
- C. Yellow Tail Snapper
- D. Sea Turtles

